1. Ellaquai Dehati Bank (EDB), through its Chairman/General Manager, 3rd Floor, Nirmaan Complex, I. G. Road, Barzulla, Srinagar – 190005.
2. Regional Manager, Ellaquai Dehati Bank, Anantnag, Kashmir.
3. Ellaquai Dehati Bank, Branch Tahab, Pulwama, through its Branch Manager.

...Respondents/Management

In the matter of :–Petition under section Industrial Disputes Act.

AWARD

1. Petitioner along with his counsel present. This industrial dispute has been referred to this Tribunal by the Government of Jammu and Kashmir, Labour and Employment Department, vide Notification S.O. 284 dated 05.08.2021, issued in exercise of powers under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The Government has on the basis of the failure report of the Conciliation Officer, formed an opinion that an industrial dispute exists between the parties and referred for adjudication the following issues :

(i) Whether the applicant was an employee of Ellaquai Dehati Bank, Wazir Bagh, Srinagar.
(ii) If yes, whether his termination is illegal; and
(iii) What benefits; if any, he is entitled to from the Management of Ellaquai Dehati Bank.

2. The failure report of the Conciliation Officer (Assistant Labour Commissioner, Pulwama) shows that the applicant had approached him under the Industrial Disputes Act challenging his termination from service, contending that he remained under the employment of respondent No. 3 at Tahab, Pulwama, on daily-wage basis since 01.05.2004, which fact stands corroborated by a letter addressed by the Branch Manager, Tahab to the Regional Manager, Anantnag recommending release of his wages. The report further notes that despite issuance of notice the management appeared, filed objections denying the relationship of employment, conciliation failed and the matter was therefore referred to Government for appropriate reference.

3. In his petition under the Industrial Disputes Act, the petitioner asserts that he is a workman and employee of the respondent-bank posted at Tahab branch (respondent No. 3) since his initial engagement on 01.05.2004 on monthly wages of Rs. 4,500/-. He pleads that the nature of his job as messenger/peon/safaiwala and watch and ward is evident from an official communication of the Branch Manager, Tahab to the Regional Manager, wherein regularisation of his services and release of his wages were recommended (Annexure "A").

4. The petitioner avers that the respondents failed to pay his wages regularly, hence he filed an application in 2016 before the Authority under the Payment of Wages Act, District Pulwama, for recovery of earned and unpaid wages from the year 2004 onwards. By order dated 28.09.2017, the Authority allowed the claim and awarded unpaid wages of Rs. 14,21,600/- in his favour, holding the respondents liable under section 15 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Annexure "B").

5. The petitioner further pleads that the respondents assailed the said order before the learned District Judge, Pulwama, acting as appellate authority, but the appeal was dismissed on technical grounds vide order dated 22.01.2018, thus rendering the Payment of Wages order final (Annexure "C"). Thereafter, in execution, the Assistant Labour Commissioner issued Deposit Notice No. ALC/P/17/192 dated 07.10.2017 directing respondents to deposit the awarded amount within 30 days, instead of depositing the whole amount, the respondents made part-payments through several cheques, but continued to engage the petitioner in service.

6. According to the petitioner, he continued with his employment and duties at Tahab till 15.04.2019, when the Branch Manager (respondent No. 3) forcibly disallowed him from performing his duties and snatched whatever work had been entrusted to him, without issuing any notice, order or following due process of law. He states that his complaint to higher authorities of the bank met a cold response and he was pushed into slumbers and starvation, being without any source of livelihood.

7. The petitioner contends that the respondents have wholly departed from statutory norms and law governing regulation and termination of employment, that no lawful order of termination has been passed, and therefore in law he continues in service and is entitled to continuity of employment, regular monthly wages with permissible increments, and ultimate superannuation benefits. He further pleads that he has spent his youthful years in service of respondents, is now over-aged, deeply in debt, and unable to secure any other employment, and that the termination is arbitrary and not on account of any default on his part.

8. The respondents, in their objections before this Tribunal, raise preliminary objections that the petition is not maintainable, that the petitioner has no locus standi, has concealed material facts and that the petition is false, frivolous and outside the ambit of an industrial dispute. On merits, they deny that the petitioner has ever been appointed as a daily-wager or employee and assert that no appointment or termination order has ever been issued in his favour.

9. The management's stand is that the petitioner is a stranger to the bank and has been treated at par with a customer and that he is in fact landlord of the building in which Tahab branch is housed, receiving monthly rent from the bank. They allege that the petitioner manipulated earlier proceedings under the Payment of Wages Act in a fraudulent manner, obtained an ex-parte order and thereafter, on the advice of the then Branch Manager, managed a compounding arrangement under which an amount of Rs. 7,00,000/- was paid to him without admitting any employment relationship. In reply to the petition the management/non-applicants filed detailed objections, primarily contending that the application is not maintainable as there exists no relationship of employer and employee between the parties, that the real nature of the transaction is one of tenancy, the bank having taken the premises of the applicant on rent and paying agreed rent, that the applicant has availed various loan facilities from the bank and has defaulted, whereupon the account has been classified as NPA, that the applicant in order to pressurise the bank and avoid repayment, has filed a false and vexatious application alleging employment and that at no point of time was the applicant appointed or treated as an employee of the bank, nor was any post created or salary paid to him. Then add a short, numbered list capturing the para-wise denials such as Preliminary objection : application not maintainable for want of employer-employee relationship, Paras 2-10 of the application denied; allegations of employment and wages termed false and baseless, Bank's case that applicant is only landlord/borrower, that loan is NPA and that present dispute is an attempt to evade repayment.

10. Then issues framed which reproduced as under: -

(i) Whether present petition is not maintainable as petitioner has no locus standi to file present petition; if so how? OPR

(ii) Whether present application is not maintainable as there exists no relationship of employer & employee between the parties? OPR

(iii) Whether non-applicants are paying the agreed rent towards applicant & there is nothing outstanding against the bank? OPR

(iv) Whether applicant has not liquidated the loan amount availed from ED Bank and now playing tricks to avoid repayment of loan? OPR

(v) Whether petitioner is a workman? OPP and respondents are liable to pay an unpaid wages amount of Rs 14,21,600. OPP

(vi) Whether petitioner has suppressed material facts as such he is not entitled to any relief ? OPR

Then on 04.07.2023 respondents set ex-parte and petitioner lead evidence in ex-parte in support of his claim, the petitioner examined himself on affidavit and produced the affidavits of Abdul Aziz Ganaie, Manzoor Ahmad Ganaie, Bilal Ahmad, Abdul Gani Dar and Mohammad Ashraf Bhat as PWs. These witnesses, who are residents of Tahab Pulwama and claim personal knowledge of the petitioner's engagement with the respondent bank, have deposed that a branch of Elaqahi Dehati Bank was opened at Tahab Pulwama around the year 2004, where the petitioner was taken as a messenger/watchman/ helper in the branch, that he used to attend the bank daily and was paid monthly wages of about Rs. 2,800/- that the bank authorities had promised him regularisation, that disputes regarding non-payment of his wages had earlier been taken by him before the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Pulwama, where he allegedly succeeded and that despite compromises and assurances, the bank has not regularised his services nor cleared his entire wage dues as a result whereof he and his family are stated to be on the verge of starvation.

11. Heard arguments.

12. Since the respondents were set ex-parte, the onus of all issues except issue no. 5 was upon the respondents as they failed to produce any evidence, thus these are treated to be read against the respondents.

13. Now coming to Issue no. 5 "Whether petitioner is a workman and respondents are liable to pay an unpaid wages amount of Rs 14,21,600", OPP.

14. The Tribunal has perused the entire record including the detailed order dated 28.09.2017 passed by the Authority under the Payment of Wages Act, District Pulwama, in Application dated 13.05.2015. The Deposit Notice pursuant thereto. Cheques issued in 2018 by EDB, Tahab, in favour of the petitioner for Rs. 1,50,000/-, 3,00,000/-, 2,50,000/- etc., towards part-payment of awarded wages. Letter dated 05.05.2015 from Branch Manager, EDB Tahab to Regional Manager, Anantnag regarding release of daily wages of Sh Ab Ahad Sheikh (Daily wager)". The Conciliation Officer's failure report dated 11.12.2020 The Government Reference Notification S.O. 284 dated 05.08.2021. Affidavits of local witnesses and of the petitioner himself as earlier noticed.

15. The Payment of Wages order records that after service of notice, the non-applicants were summoned and chose to remain absent, whereupon the Authority proceeded ex-parte and recorded evidence of several witnesses including locals and one Ali Mohd Thoker, an employee of the respondent establishment at different periods. Ali Mohd Thoker posted at EDB Tahab from 2006-2010 and again from 2010-2015 stated that the applicant was working as peon/safaiwala, opening and closing the branch, remaining present throughout the day, and that he had seen him rendering services at the branch during both his spells.

16. The other four witnesses, Mohammad Ashraf Bhat, Hilal Ahmad Sheikh, Ab Gani Dar and Ab. Aziz Ganie stated on oath that the applicant is continuously working at Ellequal Dehati Bank, Tahab, opens and closes the branch, maintains cleanliness, helps in official duties during working hours and assists staff in recovery and other work. On the basis of this evidence, the Authority categorically held that the applicant had been working with the bank since 2004, assessed his wages at Rs. 4,500/- per month (raised to Rs. 3,200/- in 2016 as per evidence) and awarded unpaid wages totalling Rs. 14,21,600/- plus compensation equal to that amount.

17. The Conciliation Officer's failure report summarises that the bank complied only partially with the Payment of Wages order by paying Rs. 7,10,800/- out of Rs. 14,21,600/- through cheques bearing Nos. 015205, 015802, 015804, 015805 dated 01.04.2018, 24.03.2018 and 28.03.2018, but despite this continued to obtain services of the applicant until 15.04.2019 when he was abruptly terminated without notice.

18. The Branch Manager's letter dated 05.05.2015, on bank's own letter-head, specifically describes "Ab Ahad Sheikh (Dally wager)" as working in the branch since 01.05.2004, states that he has not been paid wages most of the time, and narrates that he is continuously working, opening and closing the branch, helping in cash delivery. maintaining the promises neat and clean and doing watch and ward, and recommends his wages for approval and further action.

19. The Payment of Wages order, based on oral and documentary evidence including a bank employee's testimony, conclusively holds that the petitioner was working as peon/safaiwala at EDB Tahab from 2004 onwards, opening and closing the branch and performing day-long duties. This order has attained finality after dismissal of the bank's appeal by the learned District Judge, Pulwama, on 22.01.2018.

20. The subsequent Deposit Notice and actual payment of substantial sums through cheques issued by the bank towards the awarded wages are strong admissions of the bank's liability as employer. Additionally, the Branch Manager's letter acknowledging the petitioner as a "daily wager employee" since 01.05.2004 and detailing his routine duties is a direct documentary admission emanating from the management itself.

21. Against this, the respondents have only offered a bare plea that the petitioner is landlord of the premises and was never their employee without producing any material to show that he did not work in the branch or that some other person was performing the duties described by witnesses. Mere absence of a formal appointment order cannot outweigh the consistent oral and documentary evidence and previous quasi-judicial findings recognising the petitioner's status as workman.

22. This Tribunal therefore holds that the petitioner was an employee workman of Ellaquai Dehati Bank within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act.

23. The Government Notification and failure report show that the management terminated the petitioner's services on 15.04.2019 without giving any notice. The respondents have not produced any charge-sheet, enquiry report retrenchment notice or any order of termination passed in accordance with standing orders or statutory provisions.

24. It is also undisputed on record that by 2019, the petitioner had completed well over 240 days of continuous service in each year from 2004 onwards, as found in the Payment of Wages proceedings and corroborated by witnesses and the Branch Manager's letter. Termination of workman with such long continuous service without compliance with section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act and without following principles of natural justice is illegal and void.

25. The contention that there is no relation between the bank and the petitioner stands demolished by the bank's own prior admissions and conduct in the Payment of Wages case; having benefitted from his services and paid wages by virtue of a statutory award, the bank is estopped from denying his status as workman merely to avoid further liabilities.

26. The petitioner prays for direction to allow him to continue with his employment till superannuation with release of unpaid wages along with all other service benefits which he would have earned if his services had not been illegally discontinued or any other order as the court may deem fit. The record shows that his unpaid wages up to 2015 have largely been adjudicated and partly paid under the Payment of Wages proceedings, though any remaining shortfall can still be enforced.

27. The general rule in cases of illegal termination is reinstatement with continuity of service and back wages, however, the quantum of back wages depends on multiple factors such as duration of service, delay, conduct of parties and financial implications. In the present case, the petitioner has rendered about fifteen years of service till 2019, has crossed the easy employability age and asserts that he is in acute financial distress, while the bank has already born substantial liability towards past wages and has been litigating continuously.

28. Balancing these considerations, this Tribunal is of the view that reinstatement of the petitioner with continuity of service for notional purposes along with partial back wages would meet the ends of justice. Any amount already received by the petitioner pursuant to the Payment of Wages order or otherwise shall not be reopened, save for enforcement of any clearly outstanding portion of the award.

29. Thus issue no. 5 is decided in favour of petitioner

30 In view of the above findings, the reference is answered in the following terms,–

(a) It is hereby declared that Abdul Ahad Sheikh is a workman/employee of Ellaquai Dehati Bank and that his termination from service with effect from 15.04.2019 is illegal and unjustified.

(b) The respondents are directed to reinstate the petitioner in service against an appropriate Class-IV/subordinate post or equivalent at any branch of Ellaquai Dehati Bank within three months from the date of publication of this Award with continuity of service for the limited purpose of seniority and retiral benefits.

(c) The petitioner shall be entitled to 50% of his last drawn wages as back wages from 15.04.2019 till the date of actual reinstatement after adjusting any sums; if paid, for this period under any interim order or otherwise.

(d) The respondents shall also within the same period of three months ensure compliance with the order of the Authority under the Payment of Wages Act dated 28.09.2017 by clearing any outstanding portion of the awarded amount of Rs. 14,21,600/- if still unpaid, in accordance with law.

(e) In case of default in complying with clauses (b) to (d) within the stipulated period, the monetary amounts payable to the petitioner under this Award shall carry interest at the rate of 9% per annum from the date of default till realisation. The reference is disposed of in the above terms. Let a copy of this Award be sent to the Government of Jammu and Kashmir, Labour & Employment Department, for publication in the Official Gazette as required under Section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The Award shall become enforceable in accordance with law after its publication in the Official Gazette. File shall have consigned to records after its due completion.
